DEADLOCK ON ARMY BILL

Military Affairs Committee Splits on Training

Yesterday's meeting of the House Military Affairs Committee revealed the fact that a deadlock exists on the question of incorporating a provision for universal military training in the army reorganization bill.

The committee stands 10 to 10, with one vacancy created by the resignation from Congress of former Representative LaGuardia, of New York. What action the committee takes may depend upon the member selected to fill the vacancy although this is not certain, as several of the opponents are declared to be wavering.

Seven Republicans and three Democratic members of the committee favor universal military training, while five Republicans and an equal number of Democrats oppose it.

The four opponents who, it is believed, may be won over are McKenzie, Fuller, Fields and Harrison.

House leaders in control of the committee on Committees which will name LaGuardia's successor on the Military Committee, are understood to be opposed to universal training and may select a member of that view.

If this should be the case, a bitter fight on the floor, with conditions reversed from the War Congress, is certain to result.

At yesterday's meeting of the committee it was decided to finally pass on the question when its logical place in the reorganization bill is reached, probably Monday or Tuesday. In the meantime the new member is expected to be named.

AMERICAN LEGION DANCE

Local Post To Give Affair January 22

The Alexandria City Post of the American Legion, will stage their first social event Thursday, January 22, with a get-together reception and dance at Elks Hall.

The local post is greatly handicapped by lack of permanent club rooms, where the members could fraternize and entertain their friends, but it is hoped that this will be overcome at an early date.

Between four and five hundred men in Alexandria are eligible for membership in this rapidly growing organization, and a careful canvass is about to be made to bring the post up to war strength.

The members are showing a great deal of interest in this dance, as such events have been very successful in other cities.. A fine jazz orchestra has been secured, and a committee of ladies appointed to look after the refreshments.

DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY

At the regular monthly meeting of the Mary Custis Lee—17th Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., after routine business was transacted, methods of raising the quota of this chapter to the fund for the care and preservation of the Lee Mausoleum, at Lexington, were discussed and a Silver Tea to be given in Lee Camp Hall, Tuesday, January 20, at 8 p. m.

A musical and literary program will be rendered by local and Washington talent, and Mrs. George T. Klipstein, Mrs. Louis N. Duffey and Miss Corinne Milburn are in charge of arrangements.

The mausoleum of General Robert E. Lee is at the intersection of the coast to coast Lincoln Highway, and the United Daughters of the Confederacy will provide for perpetual care of this spot, a mecca for all Confederates.

At this meeting Mrs. L. E. Uhler was made chairman of the World War work committee, a committee to compile records of the part played in the world war by lineal descendents of Confederates, whether members of Confederate organizations or not.

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION

Ninth Annual Convention in Richmond January 14-17

A highway convention of unusual importance is scheduled to open in Richmond on next Wednesday, January 14. Officially, it will mark the ninth annual meeting of the Virginia Good Roads Association. In point of importance, however, it is expected to outrank all previous conventions of like character and to set a new mark in public interest and definite action toward crystallizing plans that are now being laid for the development of Virginia's public highways upon a scale commensurate with the States needs.

Distinguished speakers will attend. Among the number will be Governor Davis, of Virginia, Governor John J. Cornell, of West Virginia, Edward J. Mehren, editor of the Engineering News Record, New York City, United States Senator Swanson of Virginia, H. G. Shirley, secretary of the Federal Highway Council, Washington, D. C., Hon. D. B. Goodsell, advisory engineer in the construction division of the War Department, and Major J. C. Brower, supervising engineer in the same division.

Thomas H. McDonald, chief of the Buerau of Public Roads, Washington, D. C., is also expected to attend.

Sessions will be held in spacious quarters at the Hotel Murphy, convening at 9:30 each morning, at 2 o'clock in the afternoons and at 8:00 o'clock in the evenings.

Routine matters will be given immediate attention at the opening session on Wednesday morning, in order to clear the way for an address by Governor Davis.

W. J. BRYAN SPLITS WITH PRESIDENT

Former Secretary of State Takes Direct Issue With Executive

MUST FACE THE MUSIC

Bryan Declares for the Initiative and Referendum and Assumes His Party Will Accept Prohibition.

William J. Bryan split openly with President Wilson, at the Jackson Day dinner in Washington last night, on the question of whether the Democratic party should make the League of Nations an issue at the next election.

The former secretary of state declared the Deomcrats could not go before the country on the issue and that they must accept such compromises as may be possible.

Conceding the right of the Republican majority to dictate the Senate's course, Mr. Bryan declared:

"Our plan has been rejected and we must face the situation as it is, We must either secure such compromises, as may be possible or present the issue to the country. The latter course would mean a delay at least 14 months and then success only in case of our securing a two-thirds majority of the Senate.

"We cannot afford, either as citizens or as members of the party, to share with the Republican party responsibility for further delay; we cannot go before the country on the issue that such an appeal would present. A majority of Congress can declare war. Shall we make it more difficult to conclude a treaty than to enter a war?"

Reviewing the past and surveying a program for the future, Mr. Bryan said he ventured to suggest "three new propositions." They were:

A national system of roads, extending in every state, to be known as "a national peace way," both as a utilitarian project for binding the states together in commerce and intercourse, but a memorial as well to the soldier dead.

A national bulletin—not a newspaper, Mr. Bryan declared—to present national issues under bipartisan control.

The initiative and referendum, which he declared the Democratic party might well adopt in its "next great reform."

The reading of President Wilson's letter at both the Willard and the Washington was the signal for a tremendous ovation lasting several minutes. The Democrats showed by unmistakable signs that they indorse the stand President Wilson has taken on the league. He has perhaps never received a greater ovation than that accorded him by proxy when the Democrats assembled for the Jackson dinner outdid themselves in acclaiming the Executive.

President Wilson showed no signs of weakening in his position regarding the treaty. He did not object to reservations that would be merely explanatory or interpretive, he said, "but when the treaty is acted upon I must know whether it means that we have ratified it or rejected it."

HANGMAN WANT MORE PAY

London, Jan. 9.—England's public executioners, the hangman, want their pay increased and their claim has been presented directly to the House of Commons by a member of that body. Augustine Hellwood inquired whether the Government knew it was paying the executioners no more than in the pre war days. A Government representative replied that the matter would receive consideration.

The hangmen recently were deprived of the privilege of taking away the rope with which the criminal was hanged. This reduced one of the sources of their revenue, as the rope could be sold for a good price to curiosity collectors.

WOULD ABOLISH THE DEPARTMENT

K. L. Gilpin Is Sending Out Letters Regarding Candidacy for Speakership

SCHOOLS NEED FUNDS

Declares Election of Richard L. Brewer to Chair Would Mean Death in Committee of Bill.

Richmond, January 9.—"The State Prohibition Department seems to me a useless expenditure of public funds, now so desperately needed by our schools and roads, for which I have earnestly fought ever since I became a member of the Legislature. The department cannot be abolished with a Speaker in the chair who favors the continuance of the office. The vote in the House of Delegates will be close at best, and if the bill is held in committee, which committee is appointed by the Speaker, it will, of course, be killed."

These are outstanding statements in a letter from Kenneth N. Gilpin, candidate for the speakership of the House during the coming session against Richard L. Brewer, to every member of the lower branch of the Legislature, 100 in number.

Mr. Gilpin is from Clark and Warren Counties, and is waging his fight for the speakership against Mr. Brewer on the issue of the abolition of the State Prohibition Department.

Mr. Gilpin's letter to the members of the House follows:

"In spite of the claims made by the friends of my opponent for the speakership of the next House of Delegates, the race has become exceedingly close. I now feel confident of success, although I have not made wild and excessive claims of support.

"Frankly speaking, there are eight unpledged members. These eight men will decide the issue, as neither Mr. Brewer nor myself has the necessary number (forty-three, without the majority of them.

"Through the past weeks there has been a decided turn from my opponent, as it has been clearly shown that the State Prohibition Department cannot be abolished with a Speaker in the chair who favors the continuance of the office. The vote at best will be close in the House, and if the bill is held in committee, which committee is appointed entirely by the Speaker, it will, of course, be killed.

"The idea that the Speaker has but one vote in 100, the same as other members, is true only so far as after a bill has reached the floor of the House. A stroke of his pen will keep that bill in committee forever.

"The State Prohibition Department seems to me a useless expenditure of public funds, now so desperately needed by our schools and roads, and for which I have earnestly fought ever since I became a member of the Legislature.

"We have the Attorney-General and all of the constabulary of the State to enforce this law, as practically all the other States enforce it. In addition to this the United States government has appropriated $3,000,000 to enforce the 'dry' act, of which sum we pay our proportionate share.

"My candidacy was formulated and has been pushed by the more progressive and liberal members of the last Legislature, who believe, as I do, in a more business like legislation looking to practicability, progressiveness and economy

"These issues and this policy have become so acute throughout the State that a great number of members formerly strongly in favor of Mr. Brewer have seen fit to espouse my cause.

"If convenient, will you write me at the Richmond Hotel, Richmond, your candidate opinion on these subjects."

NOTICE

The regular monthly meeting of the Relief Truck and Engine Company No. 1. will be held Friday, January 9, 1920, at 7:30 p. m. All members are earnestly requested to be present, as business of importance will be brought before this meeting.

WATER SUPPLY

Senator Swanson Proposes to Extend Water Supply Inquiry—To Include Alexandria County

Senator Swanson yesterday proposed an amendment to House resolution providing for an investigation and report on the available source of water supply for the District of Columbia so as to include Alexandria county in the scope of the inquiry.

Senator Swanson said the original resolution directing the War Department to make the survey included not only the District of Columbia but the suburbs of Washington north of the Potomac. His amendment, he said, was designed to include Alexandria county, Virginia, for the reason that the territory just across the Potomac to the south is just as much suburban to Washington as that adjacent to the District within the State of Maryland.

That the opposition to the city manager form in Lynchburg, is intent upon upsetting the change of government, if possible, and that the move will be done quickly, is indicated by the announcement that application will be made at once to the State Supreme Court of Appeals for a writ of mandamus, to require the judge of the circuit court of the city to enter an order declaring the election illegal, because the change was not advocated by a majority vote of the entire electorate, instead of a majority of those voting

PALMER'S CHALLENGE

An interesting phase of Attorney-General Palmer's speech at the Jackson Day dinner in Washington last night was his challenge to the Republican party to carry out their program of repudiating all that the Democratic leadership stands for in matter of domestic leadership and reform. He said that if the Republicans dare carry out their threat they will write a platform along the following lines:

"If intrusted with power, we pledge ourselves to undo all that the Democratic party has done. We will immediately repeal the Federal Reserve law, amend the Constitution to make an income tax impossible, destroy the Department of Labor and the Children's Bureau, wipe out the Workmen's Compensation law, abrogate the eight hour day, legalize child labor, consign the parcels post to the scrap heap, stop Federal aid to public highways, take the savings bank out of every post-office, destroy the rural credits system and demolish the farm loan banks, repeal the Clayton Antitrust law, destroy the Federal Trade Commission, strangle the merchant marine by removing the Shipping Board reinstate the coal strike, let the profiteers go free, refuse to ratify the peace treaty, put the country back on a war basis and surrender to Germany. To preve our good faith in this policy of scuttle and crawl, we will nominate a United States Senator for President.

"On usch a platform the Republican party will get all the votes it is entitled to get; it will carry almost as many States as it did in 1912."

The announcement of the opening of this greatest of all yearly bargain festivals will, no doubt, be hailed with delight by every man, young man and boy, as the winter clearing sale at this store is always the "Open Sesame" of the high cost of clothing and when Abe L. Cohen announces a sale it is sure to be "The Sale of Sales."

REMEMBER! That a bargain sale by this long-established, reliable business is too big an event in Alexandria's history to be classed with ordinary so-called "SALES." It is solitary and alone—in a class by itself. The action of ABE L. COHEN is final, absolute and peremptory and gives you right now Clothing furnishings and shoes at just about half what you pay elsewhere and twenty-five per cent less than they are sure to be for spring and summer. There isn't a question or doubt but what clothing prices will jump from 25 per cent to 33 per cent within the next few months.

Substitution Is Robbery

Dry Cleaning doesn't mean sponging off your clothes with gasoline, merely dissolving the spots and making them spread—eventually coming out larger than ever before.

It Is a Fact That

Our method of cleaning is thoroughly rinsing the garment—using the latest improved methods. Afterward, deodorizing it, leaving absolutely no odor.

Inspect your linings before and after.

No extra charge for scouring or steam cleaning—water is cheaper than gasoline. You are ...d service second to none. A trial is convincing.

We turn nothing down—furs, silks, crepes, kid gloves, pleated work, etc.
